The Divine Law in Man - Priest Issachar

1. The Divine Law is an orderly principle of existence.
2. To serve the Divine Law is to keep the divine principle of orderly thoughts with faithful persistence to obedience to The Divine Law and to the service of humanity without interference with the duty toward themselves and their requirements.
3. The Divine Law is eternal and never changes; it is The Divine Law that never fails in reaction.
4. Man must become a willing instrument of the operation of the Law.
5. The law is a dual principle of: masculine and feminine, darkness and light, blessing and cursing, reward or punishment.
6. The Nameless One and Christ are part of The Law.
7. The Word, The Lawgiver and The Law—they are all one within its totality.
8. The Law is internal—the principle of you reap what you sow.
